RESOLUTION FOR THE EMPLOYMENT AND RETENTION OF NATIONAL FIRE ADJUSTMENT COMPANY OF AMHERST, NEW YORK, A PUBLIC ADJUSTER, TO ASSIST THE TOWN IN PURSUING A CLAIM FOR 2019 FLOOD DAMAGE SUSTAINED BY THE HYDROELECTRIC PLANT EQUIPMENT SUBMITTED TO THE TOWN'S INSURANCE CARRIER, TOKYO MARINE

WHEREAS, the Town's Hydroelectric Plant equipment sustained flood water damage during the October 31, 2019 rainstorm event and the Town desires to pursue all potential rights it has or may have under its insurance policy, which may include the full replacement of the flood-compromised equipment; and

WHEREAS, the Town Board believes it is in the Town's best interest to retain the services of a public adjuster to assist in negotiating the damage claim with the insurer and the services of National Fire Adjusting Company have been recommended to the Town, NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, that the Town Supervisor, with the assistance of the Town's Legal Counsel, is hereby authorized to negotiate a claims adjustment agreement with National Fire Adjusting Company, and to execute such agreement on behalf of the Town as promptly as possible, provided such agreement is based on compensation to be paid to the public adjusting firm if and only if a damage claim is agreed to and paid by the insurer.
